5. Evaluation

5.1 Class Participation: A crucial element of this course is the sharing of ideas and opinions. Since each of us brings a unique background of experiences, much can be learned from class debate and discussion. However, perfect attendance alone will not guarantee a perfect participation grade. Your participation grade will be dependent on your involvement in class discussions and activities and attendance. Participation will account for 15% of your final grade. Student practice activities will count towards your participation grade. Practice activities are graded pass/fail.

Absences: All absences will impact your participation grade. As a rule of thumb, you can expect each absence to subtract 10% of your participation grade. For medical absences, refer to the policy on accommodation for medical illness (<https://studentservices.uwo.ca/secure/index.cfm>). If you have a valid excuse for an absence you must inform the instructor before the intended date. It is the instructor's discretion whether or not to excuse an absence.

5.2 Midterm Examination: A midterm examination will be given in class mid-semester. The midterm exam will cover all information that has been presented in the course up until the midterm date, including readings, lectures, videos, examples, etc. Therefore it is crucial that you take good notes throughout the term and complete all assigned readings. The exam format may include multiple choice, fill-in-the-blanks, short answer, and/or essay questions. Computer-marked multiple-choice tests and/or exams may be subject to submission for similarity review by software that will check for unusual coincidences in answer patterns that may indicate cheating.

5.3 Aviation Essay: Throughout the duration of this course you will be exposed to a wide range of aviation topics and issues. In the first class you will be broken up into 4 or 5 person cohorts. You will be required to compose a 10-page paper describing an aviation topic of your choice. The 10-page requirement refers only to the body of the paper. The title page, abstract, and reference pages are in addition to the 10-page minimum. All members of your cohort will write independent papers, but each cohort must choose an over-arching theme. For example, your cohort may choose aviation history. Within this theme, individual members of your group may choose to write about the Wright brothers, the life of Leonardo da Vinci, the Avro Arrow, the Hindenburg, or deregulation. Other broad themes may include airlines, human factors, types of aircraft and the impact of each, aviation pioneers, aviation economics, aviation weather & meteorologists, aviation safety, regulating bodies (Transport Canada, FAA, ICAO, IATA, etc.), terrorism & security, etc. This is your opportunity to further explore any issue that sparked your interest throughout the course. You must have your cohort topic approved by the professor. The professor will approve your topic or offer suggestions to help you clarify your ideas. The paper is due within the first 15 minutes of class on the due date. This paper is expected to be in proper APA format (12 point font with standard margins) with a minimum of 10 references from newspapers, magazines, websites, journals, etc. However, keep in mind that it is the student's responsibility to critically evaluate the credibility of all sources included in the paper. For example, "wiki" websites are inappropriate sources because anyone can post information and there is no guarantee of accuracy. Additional essay instructions will be provided in class. Style: Make sure you use proper grammar, spelling, and punctuation in your essay. Remember to follow APA guidelines when formatting your essay and references page.

5.4 Final Examination: A comprehensive final examination will be given at the end of the semester. A final exam review will be given prior to the exam. The final exam will cover all information in the course, including readings, lectures, videos, examples, etc. Therefore it is crucial that you take good notes throughout the term and complete all assigned readings. The exam format may include multiple choice, fill-in-the-blanks, short answer, and/or essay questions. Computer-marked multiple-choice tests and/or exams may be subject to submission for similarity review by software that will check for unusual coincidences in answer patterns that may indicate cheating.

Evaluation Item	Percentage of Course Grade
5.1 Class Participation	15%
5.2 Midterm Examination	20%
5.3 Aviation Essay	30%
5.4 Final Examination	35%

Exams are in multiple choice and fill-in-the-blank format. Each exam, in total, will be scheduled for 3 hours and are closed book examinations. Dictionaries are NOT allowed into the examinations.

Only non-programmable calculators will be allowed into the exams. If you are unsure, please ask your professor to check your calculator.

Hard-copy print outs of assignments and/or essays are due on the dates indicated, at 9:30am. Any assignments turned in after 9:30am on the due date will incur a 10% late penalty per day. There are no exceptions to this policy. If you are unable to turn in the assignment on the due date, you may ask another student to turn it in on your behalf. Electronic/emailed versions of assignments will not be accepted.

Students are responsible for material covered in the lectures as well as the assigned chapters/sections in the text. The midterm examination will be in class time. The final exam will be scheduled during the exam period. Exams will not be returned to students but may be reviewed in the instructor's office.

Students are REQUIRED TO COMPLETE ALL COMPONENTS of this course. There are no exceptions to this. Extra assignments to improve grades will NOT be allowed.

Exams will be scored using the program Scan Exam which examines the answer sheets for unusual coincidences in the pattern of answers given which may be indicative and used as supporting evidence of cheating.

Grades will not be adjusted on the basis of need. It is important to monitor your performance in the course. Remember: You are responsible for your grades in this course.

7. University Policy Regarding Illness

7.1. Illness

The University recognizes that a student's ability to meet his/her academic responsibilities may, on occasion, be impaired by medical illness. Illness may be acute (short term), or it may be chronic (long term), or chronic with acute episodes. The University further recognizes that medical situations are deeply personal and respects the need for privacy and confidentiality in these matters. However, in order to ensure fairness and consistency for all students, academic accommodation for work representing 10% or more of the student's overall grade in the course shall be granted only in those cases where there is documentation supplied (see below for process) indicating that the student was seriously affected by illness and could not reasonably be expected to meet his/her academic responsibilities.

Documentation shall be submitted, as soon as possible, to the appropriate Dean's office (the Office of the Dean of the student's Faculty of registration/home Faculty) together with a request for relief specifying the nature of the accommodation being requested. These documents will be retained in the student's file, and will be held in confidence in accordance with the University's Official Student Record Information Privacy Policy [<http://www.uwo.ca/univsec/handbook/general/privacy.pdf>].

Once the petition and supporting documents have been received and assessed, appropriate academic accommodation shall be determined by the Dean's Office in consultation with the student's instructor(s). Academic accommodation may include extension of deadlines, waiver of attendance requirements for classes/labs/tutorials, arranging Special Exams or Incompletes, re-weighting course requirements, or granting late withdrawals without academic penalty.

Academic accommodation shall be granted only where the documentation indicates that the onset, duration and severity of the illness are such that the student could not reasonably be expected to complete his/her academic responsibilities. (Note: it will not be sufficient to provide documentation indicating simply that the student was seen for a medical reason or was ill.)

A form to be completed by off-campus physicians is available at:

<http://counselling.ssc.uwo.ca/forms/medicalNote.pdf>

Whenever possible, students who require academic accommodation should provide notification and documentation in advance of due dates, examinations, etc. Students must follow up with their professors and their Academic Counselling office in a timely manner.

In the case of a final examination in the course, the student must arrange for a Special Examination or Incomplete through their Dean's office, for which you will be required to provide acceptable documentation.

If you feel that you have a medical or personal problem that is interfering with your work, you should contact your instructor and the Faculty Academic Counselling Office as soon as possible. Problems may then be documented and possible arrangements to assist you can be discussed at the time of occurrence rather than on a retroactive basis. In general, retroactive requests for grade revisions on medical or compassionate grounds will not be considered.

7.2. Make Up Examinations

- The student must write a make-up exam if the regularly scheduled exam is missed for reasons for which adequate documentation is received by the instructor (this documentation must be supplied by the Academic Counselling office).

7.3. Attendance

- It is expected that students will attend all classes. The professor does not provide access to lecture notes. Students are encouraged to obtain missed lecture notes from a fellow student.

8. University Policy on Cheating and Academic Misconduct

- 8.1. Cheating on exams will not be tolerated; students are referred to the university policy on scholastic offenses (see section 9.0 below). Looking at the test of another student, allowing another student to view your exam, or obtaining information about a test in advance are all examples of cheating. Students found cheating will receive a zero (0%) on that exam. A number of safeguards will be employed to discourage cheating. For example, examination supervisors (proctors) of the tests may ask students to move to another seat during the exam, cover their paper, avert their eyes from other students' papers, remove baseball caps, etc. This is not meant as a personal affront nor as an accusation of cheating, rather as vigilant attempts at proctoring. A copy of guidelines about how to avoid cheating can be obtained from the office of the Ombudsperson, Room 251 University Community Centre, (519) 661-3573.
- 8.2. Students are responsible for understanding the nature of and avoiding the occurrence of plagiarism and other academic offenses. Students are urged to read the section on Scholastic Offenses in the Academic Calendar. Note that such offenses include plagiarism, cheating on an examination, submitting false or fraudulent assignments or credentials, impersonating a candidate, or submitting for credit in any course without the knowledge and approval of the instructor to whom it is submitted, any academic work for which credit has previously been obtained or is being sought in another course in the University or elsewhere. If you are in doubt about whether what you are doing is inappropriate, consult your instructor. A claim that "you didn't know it was wrong" will not be accepted as an excuse.
- 8.3. The penalties for a student guilty of a scholastic offense include refusal of a passing grade in the assignment, refusal of a passing grade in the course, suspension from the University, and expulsion from the University.

9. Procedures For Appealing Academic Evaluations

- 9.1. In the first instance, all appeals of a grade must be made to the course instructor (informal consultation). If the student is not satisfied with the decision of the course instructor, a written appeal must be sent to the Assistant Program Director or Designate of the BMOS program. If the response of the Assistant Director is considered unsatisfactory to the student, he/she may then appeal to the Dean of the Faculty in which the course of program was taken. Only after receiving a final decision from the Dean, may a student appeal to the Senate Review Board Academic. A Guide to Appeals is available from the Ombudsperson's Office.

10. Student Responsibilities

- 10.1. Material covered in lectures will not always be the same as material covered in the textbook. These two sources should be viewed as complimentary and not redundant. As such, students who want to do well in this course are strongly encouraged to attend lectures on a regular basis. Please note that the instructor will not be providing copies of lectures notes or overheads. Therefore, if you miss a lecture, you should try to obtain this material from another student.

In this class, some students may be unaware that their private discussions are distracting to other people. If you feel that students are distracting your attention from the material, then you should ask them to be quiet. If you feel uncomfortable doing this (or the problem persists), then please see the instructor. In addition, please avoid engaging in private discussions with other students during the lectures.

To avoid unnecessary distractions, please arrive to each class on time.

11. Support Services

11.1. Support Services

The Registrar's office can be accessed for Student Support Services at <http://www.registrar.uwo.ca> Student Support Services (including the services provided by the USC listed here) can be reached at: <http://www.sdc.uwo.ca/>.

Student Development Services can be reached at: <http://westernusc.ca/services/>.

- 11.2. Students who are in emotional/mental distress should refer to Mental Health@Western <http://www.uwo.ca/uwocom/mentalhealth/> for a complete list of options about how to obtain help."

12. Other Issues

12.1. Grade Policy

The DAN Program has a grade policy which states that for courses in the x000-y000 range, the class average must fall between x% and y% for all sections of a course taught by the same instructor. In very exceptional circumstances only, class averages outside this range may be approved by the Assistant Director or Director. Class averages are not grounds for appeal.

12.2. Short Absences.

If you miss a class due to minor illness or other problems, check your course outlines for information regarding attendance requirements and make sure you are not missing a test or exam. Cover any readings and arrange to borrow the missed lectures notes from a classmate.

12.3. Extended Absences.

If you are absent more than approximately two weeks or if you get too far behind to catch up, you should consider reducing your workload by dropping one or more courses. The Academic Counsellors can help you to consider the alternatives. At your request, they can also keep your instructors informed about your difficulties.

12.4. Academic Concerns.

If you are in academic difficulty, it is strongly recommended that you see your academic counsellor.
