2.2 Senate Regulations

Senate Regulations state, “unless you have either the requisites for this course or written special permission from your Dean to enroll in it, you will be removed from this course and it will be deleted from your record. This decision may not be appealed. You will receive no adjustment to your fees in the event that you are dropped from a course for failing to have the necessary prerequisites.”

This regulation is in regards to the COURSES required. Students not in BMOS are permitted to enroll in up to 1.0 MOS courses, per the Academic Timetable.

3. Textbook

Berk, Johathan, DeMarzo, Peter, Harford, Jarrad, Stangeland, David and Marosi, Andras, 2017. Fundamentals of Corporate Finance. Second Canadian Edition. Pearson. ISBN: 9780134384290

This includes access to the eText and Learning Catalytics for students, as well as the additional study resources through MyFinanceLab.

4. Course Objectives and Format

4.1 Course objectives

- The objective of this course is to introduce the participant to the fundamentals of corporate finance. Every decision that a corporation makes has financial implications, and any decision which affects the finances of a corporation is a corporate finance decision. The participant will learn how these business decisions are tied together by one powerful concept, the Valuation Principle.
- Whether you plan to major in finance or simply take this one course, you will find the fundamental financial knowledge gained to be essential in your personal and business lives.

4.2 Course format

The course is scheduled as a series of 3-hour lecture and students answering in-class questions to introduce topics in the course curriculum. Some class time might be set aside for course administration.

5. Learning Outcomes

Upon completion of the course, successful students should be able to:

- Demonstrate basic knowledge of financial markets and institutions and explain how firms obtain funds in the markets and at what cost
- Calculate the time value of money and apply the concepts to the valuation of financial securities such as bonds and stocks
- Distinguish among various types of risks and apply the Capital Asset Pricing Model to calculate returns, given appropriate risk measures
- Calculate the cost of capital and solve capital budgeting problems
- Explain how a firm might set its dividend policies

- Analyze a firm's performance to determine its strengths and weaknesses, and be able to use financial analysis to improve performance
- Explain various strategies for managing a firm's short-term assets and liabilities

6. Evaluation

Insert information about exams and assignments and other components of the grade. Update the information below describing the exam and any relevant procedures as well.

Segment of Evaluation	Percentage of Course Grade
Weekly In-class assignments	10%
Quizzes (4)	15%
Midterm exam	35%
Final exam	40%

6.1 Exams

Exams are multiple choice in format. Each exam, in total, will be scheduled for 2 hours, consist of 40 questions, and are closed book examinations. Dictionaries are NOT allowed into the examinations.

Only non-programmable calculators will be allowed into the exams. If you are unsure, please ask your professor to check your calculator. All electronic devices (includes cell phones) must be turned off and put away in your bag. They may not be on your person. Anyone found with an electronic device on their person will receive a grade of zero on the exam.

Students are responsible for material covered in the lectures as well as the assigned chapters/sections in the text. The final exam will be scheduled during the exam period. Exams will not be returned to students but may be reviewed in the instructor's office.

Students are REQUIRED TO COMPLETE ALL COMPONENTS of this course. There are no exceptions to this. Extra assignments to improve grades will NOT be allowed.

Exams will be scored using the program Scan Exam which examines the answer sheets for unusual coincidences in the pattern of answers given which may be indicative and used as supporting evidence of cheating.

6.2 Quizzes

Details and due dates will be posted on the course website. The four quizzes collectively are worth 15% towards your total grade. There are no makeup assignments/quizzes. Therefore, it is very important that you complete the assignments/quizzes on time. Late assignments/quizzes will not be accepted. Failure to submit by the due date will result in a grade of zero.

6.3 Weekly In-class assignments

Using interactive student response tool (students' smart phones, tablets or laptops) to answer questions during class to access their understanding in real time. The top ten (10) weekly results collectively are worth 10% towards your total grade. There are no makeup weekly in-class assignments. Therefore, it is very important that you attend each class and participate in the weekly in-class assignments.

Grades will not be adjusted on the basis of need. It is important to monitor your performance in the course. Remember: You are responsible for your grades in this course.

Lectures are intended to highlight certain areas of each topic--there is not enough time available for us to cover all the material in class. However, you are responsible for all the material in the text. Thus, it is important for you to keep up with the readings. Students should also note that the workload for this course is heavy and should schedule their time accordingly.

8. University Policy Regarding Illness

8.1 Illness

The University recognizes that a student's ability to meet his/her academic responsibilities may, on occasion, be impaired by medical illness. Illness may be acute (short term), or it may be chronic (long term), or chronic with acute episodes. The University further recognizes that medical situations are deeply personal and respects the need for privacy and confidentiality in these matters. However, in order to ensure fairness and consistency for all students, academic accommodation for work representing 10% or more of the student's overall grade in the course shall be granted only in those cases where there is documentation supplied (see below for process) indicating that the student was seriously affected by illness and could not reasonably be expected to meet his/her academic responsibilities.

Documentation shall be submitted, as soon as possible, to the appropriate Dean's office (the Office of the Dean of the student's Faculty of registration/home Faculty) together with a request for relief specifying the nature of the accommodation being requested. These documents will be retained in the student's file, and will be held in confidence in accordance with the University's Official Student Record Information Privacy Policy http://www.uwo.ca/univsec/pdf/academic_policies/general/privacy.pdf

Once the petition and supporting documents have been received and assessed, appropriate academic accommodation shall be determined by the Dean's Office in consultation with the student's instructor(s). Academic accommodation may include extension of deadlines, waiver of attendance requirements for classes/labs/tutorials, arranging Special Exams or Incompletes, re-weighting course requirements, or granting late withdrawals without academic penalty.

Academic accommodation shall be granted only where the documentation indicates that the onset, duration and severity of the illness are such that the student could not reasonably be expected to complete his/her academic responsibilities. (Note: it will not be sufficient to provide documentation indicating simply that the student was seen for a medical reason or was ill.)

A form to be completed by off-campus physicians is available at:

http://www.uwo.ca/univsec/pdf/academic_policies/appeals/medicalform.pdf

Whenever possible, students who require academic accommodation should provide notification and documentation in advance of due dates, examinations, etc. Students must follow up with their professors and their Academic Counselling office in a timely manner.

In the case of a final examination in the course, the student must arrange for a Special Examination or Incomplete through their Dean's office, for which you will be required to provide acceptable documentation.

If you feel that you have a medical or personal problem that is interfering with your work, you should contact your instructor and the Faculty Academic Counselling Office as soon as possible. Problems may then be documented and possible arrangements to assist you can be discussed at the time of occurrence rather than on a retroactive basis. In general, retroactive requests for grade revisions on medical or compassionate grounds will not be considered.

8.2 Make Up Examinations

The student must write a make-up exam if the regularly scheduled exam is missed for reasons for which adequate documentation is received by the instructor (this documentation must be supplied by the Academic Counseling office). The make-up may differ from the original exam.

8.3 Attendance

It is expected that students will attend all classes. The professor does not provide access to lecture notes. Students are encouraged to obtain missed lecture notes from a fellow student.

9. University Policy on Cheating and Academic Misconduct

Cheating on exams will not be tolerated; students are referred to the university policy on scholastic offenses. Looking at the test of another student, allowing another student to view your exam, or obtaining information about a test in advance are all examples of cheating. Students found cheating will receive a zero (0%) on that exam. A number of safeguards will be employed to discourage cheating. For example, examination supervisors (proctors) of the tests may ask students to move to another seat during the exam, cover their paper, avert their eyes from other students' papers, remove baseball caps, etc. This is not meant as a personal affront nor as an accusation of cheating, rather as vigilant attempts at proctoring. A copy of guidelines about how to avoid cheating can be obtained from the office of the Ombudsperson, Room 3135 WSSB, (519) 661-3573, ombuds@uwo.ca.

Students are responsible for understanding the nature of and avoiding the occurrence of plagiarism and other academic offenses. Students are urged to read the section on Scholastic Offenses in the Academic Calendar. Note that such offenses include plagiarism, cheating on an examination, submitting false or fraudulent assignments or credentials, impersonating a candidate, or submitting for credit in any course without the knowledge and approval of the instructor to whom it is submitted, any academic work for which credit has previously been obtained or is being sought in another course in the University or elsewhere. If you are in doubt about whether what you are doing is inappropriate, consult your instructor. A claim that "you didn't know it was wrong" will not be accepted as an excuse.

The penalties for a student guilty of a scholastic offense include refusal of a passing grade in the assignment, refusal of a passing grade in the course, suspension from the University, and expulsion from the University.

10. Procedures For Appealing Academic Evaluations

1. In the first instance, all appeals of a grade must be made to the course instructor (informal consultation).
2. If the student is not satisfied with the decision of the course instructor, a written appeal must be sent to the Undergraduate Chair: Student Affairs of the Department of Management and Organizational Studies.
3. If the response of the Undergraduate Chair is considered unsatisfactory to the student, he/she may then appeal to the Dean of the Faculty in which the course of program was taken.
4. Only after receiving a final decision from the Dean, may a student appeal to the Senate Review Board Academic. A Guide to Appeals is available from the Ombudsperson's Office.

11. Student Responsibilities

Material covered in lectures will not always be the same as material covered in the textbook. These two sources should be viewed as complimentary and not redundant. As such, students who want to do well in this course are strongly encouraged to attend lectures on a regular basis. Please note that the instructor will not be providing copies of lectures notes or overheads. Therefore, if you miss a lecture, you should try to obtain this material from another student.

In this class, some students may be unaware that their private discussions are distracting to other people. If you feel that students are distracting your attention from the material, then you should ask them to be quiet. If you feel uncomfortable doing this (or the problem persists), then please see the instructor. In addition, please avoid engaging in private discussions with other students during the lectures.

To avoid unnecessary distractions, please arrive to each class on time.

12. Support Services

12.1 Support Services

The Registrar's office can be accessed for Student Support Services at <http://www.registrar.uwo.ca> Student Support Services (including the services provided by the USC listed here) can be reached at: <http://westernusc.ca/services/>

Student Development Services can be reached at: <http://www.sdc.uwo.ca/>

Students who are in emotional/mental distress should refer to Mental Health@Western http://www.health.uwo.ca/mental_health/ for a complete list of options about how to obtain help.

13. Other Issues

13.1 Grade Policy

The DAN Program has a grade policy which states that for courses in the 2000-2999 range, the class average must fall between 65% and 72% for all sections of a course taught by the same instructor. In very exceptional circumstances only, class averages outside this range may be approved by the Undergraduate Chair or Chair. Class averages are not grounds for appeal.

13.2 Short Absences.

If you miss a class due to minor illness or other problems, check your course outlines for information regarding attendance requirements and make sure you are not missing a test or exam. Cover any readings and arrange to borrow the missed lectures notes from a classmate.

13.3 Extended Absences.

If you are absent more than approximately two weeks or if you get too far behind to catch up, you should consider reducing your workload by dropping one or more courses. The Academic Counsellors can help you to consider the alternatives. At your request, they can also keep your instructors informed about your difficulties.

13.4 Academic Concerns.

If you are in academic difficulty, it is strongly recommended that you see your academic counsellor.

16. FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

Question	Answer
How can I succeed in this course?	Do all the assigned readings, attend class, focus on understanding the principles in a way that lets you apply them to new fact situations.
I missed the quiz because my computer didn't work, my internet connection was lost, I was preparing my Business 2257 project, I was out of town, I lost my phone, I forgot ...	A missed quiz will result in a mark of zero. You are responsible for calendaring the quizzes and having reliable internet access to write them. There are no "make up" assignments available.
I missed a quiz or exam because I was sick or there was a death in my family.	See the section of the course outline on ILLNESS AND SPECIAL CIRCUMSTANCES
I have a lot of mid-terms or projects at once. Can I write the make-up exam?	Make-up exams for conflicts are not available unless you meet the Exam Conflict or Multiple Exam Situation scenarios . See website for instructions.
When will the exam grades be posted?	Mid-term grades are posted on OWL when they become available. Final exam grades and final course grades are not posted on OWL.
Can I come and see my exam?	You can review your exam during office hours or at any other mutually convenient time.
Can I use a different textbook?	You can use a different textbook, but it is your responsibility to ensure that you are learning all of the assigned material. Be aware that different textbooks may be organized differently and may cover different material.
There is so much material. How can I possibly remember everything?	You do not need to remember everything in the book. You need to understand the fundamental principles and how to apply them.
This mark is going to prevent me from getting accepted at Ivey/graduate school/NASA.	Grades are given based on actual performance, as set out on the course outline. In order to be fair to all the students in the course, grade adjustments, extra assignments, and the reweighting of course components are not available.
I need a certain mark to get or maintain a scholarship or my AEO status at Ivey.
I tried really hard but I still got a poor mark.
This is the lowest mark I have ever received.
