The only grounds for you to appeal a progression or an admission decision consists of your having experienced major problems which arose during the academic year and which were outside of your control. These problems could have been medical, legal, family, etc., and they must be supported by appropriate documentation. The problems must have been severe enough to have had a drastic effect on your performance in your various evaluated assignments.

APPEALS ARE NORMALLY GRANTED ONLY IN EXCEPTIONAL CIRCUMSTANCES.

If you feel that your extenuating circumstances warrant consideration for you to be allowed to progress or be admitted into the program, please follow the procedure outlined below. The appeal must be typewritten. Please read through the entire form before you answer any of the questions. Include all relevant information. All personal information is held in confidence.

Please note that you are required to sign this form indicating that the information you have submitted is true and complete. If additional documentary evidence is brought to our attention after the Undergraduate Chair has made a final decision on your request for an appeal, the onus is on you to explain why the new evidence is significant and relevant, and why it was not included with your original appeal.

Students appealing the progression or admission decision must do so in writing (NOT EMAIL) by June 30 to:

Bill Dawson, Undergraduate Chair: Student Affairs
 Social Science Centre, Room 4330, London, Ontario, N6A 5C2

You will receive written notice of the decision with a brief statement of reasons within two to three weeks following receipt of the formal appeal.

With your appeal, you must enclose the appropriate supporting documentation.

It is your responsibility to ensure that your appeal is complete and that you have responded to all of the questions listed on the form. Appeals will not be considered until complete.

"I certify that the above and attached information is true and complete. I have read through the conditions outlined in this document and understand my situation to meet the requirements for consideration. I have attached all relevant documentation as requested."
